Billy To Russia?

Graham Hurls Challenge to Red Regime

Says Could Win Converts If Had Free Movement

NEW YORK (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham challenged Soviet leaders Sunday night to permit him to carry his "Crusade for Christ" thru Russia.

Given the opportunity to preach unrestricted, Graham said, he could win more converts to Christianity in Russia than in any other country he has visited during his 7-year-old crusade.

But the 38-year-old evangelist said he would go to Russia only if he could have complete freedom of movement and was able to preach wherever he desired.

"I would certainly like to challenge them (Soviet leaders) to allow us to go to the crossroads in the towns and villages and preach the gospel of Christ."

Graham, appearing on "Meet the Press" over the National Broadcasting Co., said he was convinced that "the greatest religious revival in history would take place in the Soviet Union."

Conversions during the Russian phase of his Crusade for Christ would be "far greater than in India, London and the United States," the North Carolina evangelist said. During his sermon at Madison Square Garden, Graham told 19,000 persons that "the Bible teaches that God has a set of books and every act you have committed will be written there—all pornographic literature you have read, all the lewd pictures you have looked at, and your unfaithfulness to your wife."

"Even the finest courts in our land make mistakes, but there will be no mistakes at the great white throne."

Algiers Bombs Kill 10, Hurt 80

ALGIERS (AP)—A new bomb outrage that killed 10 persons and injured more than 80 others brought French-Muslim tension to a new danger point today.

French authorities took stern precautions to protect the Moslem population against French reprisals for the double bombing of La Corniche Casino outside Algiers Sunday night.

The rebellion has returned violently to Algiers itself after four months of comparative calm. Only last Tuesday rebels planted three bombs at crowded bus stops in downtown Algiers, killing 10 persons and wounding 85.

The attacks have marked a shift in nationalist tactics, designed to terrorize both the European and the Moslem population. It began a week ago last Friday with the massacre of Melouza in which 303 pro-French Moslems were butchered by the National Liberation front.

Rainfall 1.71 Inches; No Reason to Pump

Saturday rainfall measured 1.71 inches, Harrison Kibler stated. Although the sewers and ditches overflowed, he explained, there was no reason for turning on the pumps to pump out water as the highest stage reached in Middle Fork was 13.5 feet and 20 feet is a low stage for pumping.

Roy C. Small Will Join Register Staff

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Small arrived Saturday from Gallipolis, Ohio, to make their home in Harrisburg, and are temporarily at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Small.

They will leave Tuesday or Wednesday for Cadillac, Mich., where Mrs. Small plans an extended visit with her mother, sisters and other relatives.

Mr. Small will return immediately to Harrisburg and next Monday will join the business staff of The Daily Register.

A graduate of the School of Journalism of the University of Illinois, he was on the staff of the Cadillac News from February 1955 through February, 1956, and since that time has been on the staff of the Gallipolis, Ohio, Tribune.

Vote Goes Pro-Western In Lebanon

By United Press
Premier Sami El Solh of Lebanon and his pro-Western government won a major parliamentary election victory today that further isolated the Egyptian-Syrian axis from the other Arab nations.

Election of nearly all the government candidates in the Sunday balloting was seen in Lebanon as a rejection of leftist political attempts to tie Lebanon to Syria and Egypt.

The balloting was for 22 of the 66 seats at stake in the one-house legislature. The remainder will be decided in elections each of the following three Sundays.

Belief that Lebanon was moving away from Syria and Egypt was heightened by a message from Lebanese President Camille Chamoun to King Hussein of Jordan and King Saud of Saudi Arabia in Amman asking God's guidance in achieving Arab aims.

The Saudi visit to Jordan was expected to wean Hussein further from Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser although there has been no official statement that the old Arab alliance had been broken or badly bent.

Golconda Woman, 99, Dies; Father Saw Chicago Fire Lights

Mrs. Anna Belle Reeder, 99, a citizen of Golconda, died at 5:35 a. m. Sunday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Worth Mumm, and her granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Mumm, in Golconda.

The funeral was held today at 2 p. m. in the Rottmann funeral chapel in Golconda with Rev. L. R. Bowles of the Golconda Baptist church officiating. The body was then taken to Watseka, where it will lie in state at the Eastburn funeral home until a service is held there at 4 p. m. Wednesday. Burial will be in the Oak Hill cemetery at Watseka.

Many friends will remember the story that Mrs. Reeder loved to tell of the time when her father was driving his cattle from his farm to the Chicago stockyards, and saw lights in the sky, which he took to be the aurora borealis. They turned out to be the lights from the great Chicago fire.

Pryor Gets 10 Days in Making Of False Teeth

Jailed Here for Violating Court Order to Desist

Earl Pryor of Eldorado today was sentenced to 90 days in the Saline county jail for violation of a Circuit Court order. The sentence was passed by Circuit Judge C. E. Wright.

Pryor, who has been in and out of court for years for the illegal practice of dentistry, admitted under oath to Judge Wright that he had violated a court order, issued to restrain Pryor from the making of false teeth and maintaining a laboratory for the making of dentures.

Pryor told the court he first began the making of false teeth in 1933, being taught the profession by an Eldorado dentist and made false teeth for many dentists in Saline county until 1946.

He then started working for himself and in 1948 he was first brought into court for the illegal practice of dentistry.

An injunction was granted Oct. 36, 1948 to restrain Pryor from the unlawful practice of dentistry.

In 1948, when the restraining order was issued, Pryor was placed on probation.

Following the expiration of the probation Pryor resumed the practice, he stated, and had been in court on the same charge twice, one time being fined and on another occasion being sentenced to 60 days in the county jail.

In discussing the case it was pointed out that as long as the false teeth were made for licensed dentists Pryor was within the law, but when he "went in business for himself" that he was violating the Illinois Dental laws.

Judge Wright, in passing the 90 day sentence, talked with Pryor in a sincere, fatherly manner, explaining that due to extenuating circumstances he was giving Pryor a light term, but that if he came before the court again on the same charge he would be given the maximum sentence.

Illness Report Drops Stock Valuations More Than Billion Dollars

NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks lost more than one billion dollars in valuation of listed shares today on news of President Eisenhower's illness.

Tickers fell behind by nearly 15 minutes. It was the sharpest drop since Feb. 11. The market made its 1957 lows on Feb. 12 and has been rising almost steadily since. It opened higher today and advanced further in the first half hour.

Then came news of the President's illness. Traders dumped stocks. Early gains running to more than $2 a share were almost immediately turned into losses running to more than $5 a share.

Overturns Auto Near Pierson on Rt. 34

Jackie Pankey, 21, Carrier Mills, was only shaken up after his car overturned on Route 34 near Pierson at 4:30 p. m. Sunday.

Pankey told State Policeman Adolph Sweet that he left the road to avoid hitting an auto in front of him that he did not see until he topped a hill.

Assembly Nears End, Goes on Five-Day Week

Forces Mustered For Stratton Veto Overriding Effort

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Legislature went on a five-day week today as it headed into the final three weeks of its session with the bulk of a record 2,270 bills still to be acted upon.

House Speaker Warren L. Wood has told members to "bring an extra shirt" with them this week for the first Friday meeting of the current session. Today's session in both houses are scheduled to start in mid-afternoon.

Heading the legislative calendar this week is the second round in a fight to override Gov. William G. Stratton's veto of a bill cutting the powers of public administrators.

Also, final legislative approval is expected for a 75-million-dollar Korean veteran bonus plan, and sponsors will try to get a vote on a proposed constitutional amendment to lower the voting age to 18.

Veto Fight to Senate
Rep. Robert W. McCarthy (D-Lincoln), sponsor of the vetoed bill, is trying to do something that has been accomplished only three times since 1870.

No attempt to override a veto has even been made since 1951, and no such attempt has been successful since a special session in 1936.

McCarthy won the first half of his fight in the House two weeks ago. On Wednesday he will carry the second half of the fight into the Senate where he must get another two-thirds vote, or 39 senators, on his side if the vote is to be overridden.

McCarthy's bill got 45 votes in the Senate when it was originally passed. This means at least seven senators would have to change their votes if Stratton's veto is to be upheld.

Plane Hits Patio, Kills 4 Aboard

PACOMA, Calif. (AP)—A light plane crashed into the patio of a house Sunday night, killing all four persons aboard and narrowly missing eight others having dinner less than ten feet away.

Hundreds of residents, their nerves shaken by a series of air crashes in the San Fernando Valley, saw the Piper Tri-Pacer plunge out of the clouds and head for the heavily populated area. Many persons thought the crippled plane was going to hit their homes and they ran in terror.

However, the eight persons, including three children, having dinner at the Barry Worth home had no warning. The plane ripped through the patio roof and disintegrated as it hit the ground.

Worth, his wife, Mary, their children and three Sunday dinner guests escaped injury. The bodies of the victims were badly mangled and it took authorities more than an hour to establish identities.

Four Die in Family

Illinois Road Fatal Total 13 Including Five Near Belleville

By United Press
A collision near Belleville killed five persons, four of them in one family, in Illinois weekend traffic. The tragedy boosted the state's highway accident toll to at least 13.

Killed in the Saturday crash on Ill. 161 were Leroy Borrenpohl, 33, and his wife, Chorraine, 31, Mascoutah, their children, Leroy Jr., 9, and Samuel, 5; and Jack Lee Bruhl, 27, Belleville.

State police said Bruhl side-swiped a car driven by Marvin Stepp of Scott Air Force Base while passing and rammed head-on into the Borrenpohl car. Stepp suffered minor injuries.

Two Killed Near Joliet
Another multiple fatality crash claimed the lives of Beverly Bick, 28, Joliet, a night club entertainer, and William Davis, 32, Wilmington, a father of seven children. They were killed when their cars collided on U. S. 66 near Joliet Friday night.

John Lambert, 89, Quincy, was killed Saturday when he was struck by a car near his home. Mrs. Cora Wood, 66, Woodlawn, was killed Saturday when a car in which she rode hit a bridge railing on U. S. 460 west of Mount Vernon.

Dies Near Effingham
Killed in a two-car wreck Saturday night was Mrs. Mary Martin, 38, Indianapolis. The crash occurred on U. S. 40 near Effingham.

George E. Gilmore, 56, Zion, who was on his way to the funeral of a brother, was killed in a head-on crash near Chautau Air Force base Saturday night.

A two-car crash in North Chicago Sunday killed Mrs. Jeanette Edwards, 28, Waukegan. A car struck and killed John P. Murphy, 65, Chicago, in Chicago Saturday night. Harold Owl, 39, Chicago, identified as the driver, was charged with reckless driving.

Woman Treated for Injuries Suffered in Crash Near Eldorado
One person was slightly injured in a two-car collision three miles north of Eldorado Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Holt, passenger in a 1949 Chevrolet driven by her husband, was taken to the Pearce hospital in Eldorado following a collision between the Holt automobile and a pickup truck driven by C. H. Harrelson, Eldorado.

The accident occurred at an intersection of gravel roads in the Shiloh community, north of Eldorado. The vehicles were damaged very little, it is reported by Deputy Sheriff Charles Donelson, who made the investigation.

Held on Assault Charge

Roy Prince of the Rocky Branch community was placed in the Saline county jail Saturday night on an assault and battery charge filed by his wife, according to information from the Saline County Sheriff's office.

Held on Assault Charge
Roy Prince of the Rocky Branch community was placed in the Saline county jail Saturday night on an assault and battery charge filed by his wife, according to information from the Saline County Sheriff's office.

Four people, including a mother and son, were hospitalized and two automobiles badly damaged as the result of a head-on collision on the Raleigh road, near Number 10 school just west of Eldorado, at 8:15 p. m. Sunday.

Taken to the Pearce hospital were Mrs. Ray Platt and son Jimmy, 16, of Sesser and Roy Weatherly and Charley Nelson, Eldorado. Reports from the hospital this morning were that although the full extent of their injuries was not known as they were to be x-rayed today, it was thought that none had suffered critical injuries.

The accident was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Charles Donelson, Eldorado Policeman Donnie Hopkins and State Patrolmen Mike Taggart and Guthrie Alexander.

Deputy Donelson stated the investigation showed the Ray Platt family was returning home to Sesser from a trip in Kentucky and Nelson, Weatherly and Rex Vickery, all of Eldorado, were traveling toward Eldorado.

Donelson said apparently the car containing the three Eldorado residents was on the wrong side of the highway and crashed head-on into the Platt automobile.

Vickery is in the Saline county jail and Nelson and Weatherly were placed under hospital arrest, Donelson said.

Stays in Bed After Vomiting Several Times

Hagerty Reports Specialists Called As Precaution

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported by the White House at 11:20 a. m. c.d.t. today to be "progressing very satisfactorily" after a "stomach upset."

By MERRIMAN SMITH

United Press White House Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was confined to his bed today with "an upset stomach."

He became ill during the night and vomited three or four times. The White House said he was feeling more comfortable this morning.

A heart specialist examined the President, and a specialist on internal disorders was called in "as a precautionary measure."

"There is no indication that this digestive upset is related in any way to the President's recent (ileitis) operation or his heart attack," said Press Secretary James C. Hagerty.

The President's operation for ileitis—a form of intestinal obstruction—was performed a year ago Sunday.

Eisenhower's temperature and blood pressure were normal. But his physician, Dr. Howard McC. Snyder, advised him to stay in bed. All engagements for the day were cancelled.

Hagerty said the stomach upset was "apparently caused by something he ate which disagreed with him."

Stock Market Drops

Secretary of State John Edgar Dulles was overheard telling Chairman Thomas S. Gordon (D-Ill.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee that Eisenhower's condition was "nothing serious," that he had "eaten some blueberry pie" which apparently disagreed with him.

Nevertheless, news of the President's latest illness hit the New York stock market hard. Stocks dropped one billion dollars and tickers were running 15 minutes behind.

Hagerty said the President had complained of nausea when he and Eisenhower left the White House shortly after 9 p. m. Sunday to go to American University here for an honorary degree and groundbreaking ceremonies.

He said Eisenhower told him he had "a feeling of an upset stomach coming on."

Eisenhower returned to the White House shortly after 10 p. m. and immediately called in Snyder, who arrived about 10:20 p. m. Snyder remained at the White House throughout the night.

This morning Snyder called in Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, heart specialist at the Army's Walter Reed Medical Center, who took an electrocardiogram.

Hagerty said, "electrocardiograph tracings show no changes from the many that have been made since his recovery from his heart attack."

Business Outlook: Mixed

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

As we approach mid-year, the economic pulse-takers are hard at it trying to figure what the rest of 1957 is going to be like. Evidently most of them have a pretty cheerful outlook.

The Wall Street Journal sampled bankers, businessmen, economists and government people and 65 out of 70 say they expect the nation's economy either to hold fairly even or advance a little. The others look for a downturn in the final six months.

As so often, the picture is mixed,
with both positive and negative factors well exposed. But, as so characteristic of most of the postwar era, the mixture does not appear to be particularly harmful.

Rising prices and wages trouble some of the experts, but others think the peril at this moment is not great.

The automobile industry isn't booming as it would like, but the new fall models may give it a healthy upward shove. Home building isn't up to snuff, either, but the prospect of easier credit in the months ahead is rated a plus item.

It used to be said that the economy couldn't stand important sags in car output and home building.
Obviously that isn't true any more.
The impressive thing about U. S.
business in 1957 is its insistent momentum. It keeps bowling along no matter what.

And business leaders express their confidence in the future by continuing to lay out huge sums to expand and improve the nation's industrial plant. This, of course, is one of the factors helping to sus-tain activity at a high level.

So is the record volume of personal income, coupled with the evident willingness of Americans to spend a considerable proportion.

About the worst thing that seems to happen to the economy these days is that parts of it dip and flutter or the whole of it moves along on an even keel. To a nation used to spectacular upsurges
this can be a little disappointing, but such obvious high-level stability is hardly a cause for howling calamity.

tein, calcium, phosphorus, iron,

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Dulles Claimed Sgt. Girard
Coaxed Japanese Woman On
U. S. Firing Range; Secretary
Humphrey Faces Antitrust
Case In Taking His New Job;
Ike's Supreme Court Justices
Are More Liberal Than Truman's.

WASHINGTON. — It was an impassioned plea by Secretary of State Dulles that finally reversed
President Eisenhower himself residing a Japanese trial for Sgt.
William Girard. The President had stood firmly behind the Army and Secretary of Defense Wilson that Girard should face an American court-martial, until Dulles threw the whole future of American-Asiatic policy into the argument.

He warned that resentment against American GI's in Asia was so great that we might have to withdraw our troops from almost every Asiatic country. Japan, he said, had even threatened to scrap our mutual defense treaty if Sgt.
Girard was tried by the United States, not Japan.

Dulles also warned that trouble was brewing in South Korea where South Koreans charge an American GI, Sgt. John Wilson, with an alleged robbery. This, on top of the killing of a Chinese "peeping Tom" by Sgt. Robert Reynolds in Formosa, had played into Communist hands and aroused Asiatic populations to a dangerous pitch.
Dulles also gave the cabinet a new version of the accidental killing of the Japanese housewife on the American firing range. He said that Sgt. Girard is believed to have deliberately coaxed the Japanese woman onto the firing range by offering to let her have some scrap metal.

When she got close, he fired an empty cartridge case from a grenade launcher to scare her.
The shell case accidentally hit and killed her.

Secretary of Defense Wilson disputed Dulles' version of the story, claimed Girard fired in line of duty and was clearly under the Army's jurisdiction. At first Eisenhower stood with Wilson. But when the secretary of state argued that our entire Asiatic relations, including those with the Philippines, were at stake, he agreed to a reversal.

Note—One important potential trouble spot to watch is Greece, where all Americans working for Uncle Sam still have the extra-territorial right of trial in their own courts no matter what they do. The State Department has long wanted to change this, but the Army is opposed. Greeks resent it bitterly.

The historic Supreme Court decision divorcing General Motors and Du Pont is going to create some problems for retiring secretary of the treasury George Humphrey. He is to become head of National Steel, which is 28 per cent owned by his former company, the M. A. Hanna Compary.

Since Du Pont is now not permitted to own 20 per cent of General Motors, it's going to be difficult for the Hanna company to hang on to its 28 per cent of National Steel.

Humphrey had built up the Hanna company to be one of the most powerful industrial holding companies in America, including coal iron, steel, nickel, rayon, and even biscuits. His son has now succeeded him as head of the Hanna company, and Humphrey is becoming head of Affiliated National Steel.

It will be interesting to see whether Humphrey's cabinet colleague, Attorney General Brownell, now starts an antitrust suit against Humphrey in his new job.

Note — One hot potato which Humphrey will escape as he leaves cabinet is whether to charge the Du Ponts a capital gains tax when they sell their General Motors stock. Since the government is forcing the sale of the stock, it's debatable whether the sellers should be charged a capital gains tax. This would mean an extra half billion to Uncle Sam, if the Treasury decides to collect. But this one will have to be decided by Humphrey's successor, Bob Anderson.

LYNDON EXPLAINS PARITY

To most city people, farm parity is about as important as last year's baseball scores. However, Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas recently issued some figures on parity—the relation between a farmer's income and his outgo costs
—that may help to explain tooth-gnashing in the farm belt.

The Texas senator noted the following price increases to farmers since 1947, the first back-to-normal peacetime year after World War II:

Gasoline 1 up about 19 per cent;
autos, 56 per cent; tractors, 40 per cent; ten-gallon milk cans, 70 per cent; steel fence posts, 48 per cent; 4-point barbed wire, 51 per cent; poultry netting, 54 per cent.

Senator Johnson then pointed out the following price declines (since 1947) in what farmers sell:
Wheat is down 25 per cent;
corn, 45 per cent; potatoes, 41 per cent; hogs, 42 per cent; beef cattle, 20 per cent; eggs, 30 per cent; milk, 8 1-2 per cent.

SUPREME COURT NOTES

Old guard Republicans shudder to think that a Supreme Court justice appointed by Ike, Bill Brennan of New Jersey, wrote two of the most historic and liberal opinions of the year. It might have been expected of Hugo Black or Bill Douglas, they say, but not of an Eisenhower appointee. Brennan wrote both of the opinions divorcing Du Pont-General Motors, plus the opinion requiring production of FBI files if the government wants to base its prosecution on those files. There's a lot of speculation as to whether the next antitrust case, similar to the GM-Du Pont divorce, may be reversed by the same Supreme Court. Reason is that three judges abstained—Harlan, because he once represented Du Pont, Clark, because he handled the Du Pont case when he was attorney general; and Whitaker because he didn't join the court in time.

In future cases, Harlan is generally expected to vote with big business. He was a Wall Street attorney. Whitaker was a midwest business attorney and might vote the same way. Tom Clark, though once head of the antitrust division, could vote either way. A lot of lawyers are wondering when Felix Frankfurter will carry out the advice he gave other justices to retire at the age of 70. He is now 74.

From a liberal viewpoint, Eisenhower's Supreme Court appointments are better than Truman's.
Chief Justice Warren is one of the greatest additions to the court in recent years. Brennan and Harlan have turned out to be liberal on human rights issues. Whitaker is still untested.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—
Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.
Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astounding statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"
The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.
This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H* At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

Peggy Disney Becomes Bride of Richard Miley in Candlelight Service

Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Miley

Miss Peggy Disney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Disney of Muddy, became the bride of Richard D. Miley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miley of 13 East Gaskins street, Harrisburg, in a candlelight service Saturday, May 25 at 6 p. m.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. E. Russell in the Muddy Baptist church, before the two families assembled there. The altar, before which the ceremony took place, was decorated with standards of white gladioli. Tall candelabras holding white tapers, formed a background.

Miss Disney was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a dress of white bridal lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and a full skirt. Her head-dress was of lace and secured a nylon-tulle veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with streamers of ribbon and florets cascading from it.

Mrs. Barbara Heise of Carbondale served as matron of honor and wore pale blue organdy. Her head-dress of pink carnations and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

W. T. Westbrook acted as best man for the bridegroom and brothers of the bride, Richard Disney and David Disney, were ushers and candlelighters.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of beige sheer-crepe with black accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of grey shantung, styled in a two piece manner and black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

There was a reception in the lower rooms of the church, following the ceremony and Miss Carole Odle and Mrs. Shirley Price served as hostesses.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of HTHS and Mr. Miley attended the University of Iowa, Bera college, Ky., and the University of Illinois.

The bride attended Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

The bridal couple left immediately following the reception for a honeymoon trip through the South.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Girot of Galatia; Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Penrod, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Girot and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mosby of Metropolis; Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Upchurch of Goreville; Mrs. Edith Coxon of Eldorado; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miley of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klighman of St. Louis, Missouri.

David Miley of Elgin, brother of the bridegroom, could not attend because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Hancock and daughter, Angela, of Chicago are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hancock of 1315 South Feazel street, Harrisburg, where they will remain until Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. James DeNeal of Odon, Ind., are also visitors in this community. Mrs. DeNeal is the former Miss Deala Hancock.

The Raleigh Baptist church held a meeting Wednesday evening and called Rev. Clifford Russell of Muddy, to be the pastor of the church. Rev. Russell comes to the church highly recommended and has had experience as pastor of larger congregations.

Kay Mings of Decatur is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cabel.

Hangs Self in Cell, Using Blanket Strips

DANVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A prisoner at the Vermillion County jail awaiting grand jury action on a robbery charge hanged himself in his jail cell.

David Marr, 45, Chicago Heights, was found in his cell Saturday. He used torn blanket strips to fashion a crude rope for the suicide.

Marr was accused of holding up the Liberty Market near here with a toy pistol. He had been arrested a short time after the robbery and police said he confessed.

Bring Own Tub Plugs

LONDON (AP)—A traveler to Russia advised would-be tourists to bring along their own bath tub plug when they visit the Soviet Union. Nicklas Jones, in a letter to the Sunday Express, said bath plugs "are virtually non-existent in the Soviet Union" because it's an old Russian custom to wash oneself in running water.

Wheat Growers To Vote June 20

June 20 has been set as the date on which wheat growers will vote "yes" or "no" on the 1958-crop wheat marketing quotas, recently proclaimed by Secretary Benson, according to Herman Driskell, chairman, Saline County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee. The Saline County ASC office will, as usual, set up polling places in the county for farmers' convenience in voting.

Mr. Driskell pointed out that the recent marketing quota announcement marks the fifth successive year in which wheat quotas have been proclaimed. The proclamation of quotas must be made—in compliance with law — when the wheat supply is 20 per cent or more above normal. This year's supply is 56 per cent above normal.

Chairman Driskell emphasized that at least two-thirds of the producers voting in the referendum must approve quotas before they can be put in effect.

Should quotas be approved, Mr. Driskell explains, wheat growers who comply with their allotments will be eligible for price support on their entire production. The minimum national average for 1958 has been announced at $1.78 per bushel. Wheat growers who exceed their farm acreage allotments will be subject to marketing quota penalties on their excess wheat if they have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest. The penalty will be 45 per cent of the May 1, 1958, parity price. Growers who knowingly exceed their allotments will also be ineligible for price support.

VACATION WARNINGS FROM J. EDGAR HOOVER—When you lock the doors (and make sure you do) and take off on that long-awaited vacation, carry these items in your mental luggage. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, offers the tips above to those who'd like to make it "a perfect vacation." Carelessness can mar the best time, if you let it. The careful vacationer will bring back happy memories. The careless one may not wish to recall "the time we went to..."

Sure sign of an empty house is a row of untouched milk bottles at the door, or a pile of folded newspapers. An uncut lawn or drawn shades also advertise that "they've gone away." So attend to these things before you drive off. Once on the road, you're not relieved of being careful. A hitchhiker may be just after a ride. He may be after something else. Don't pick one up. And don't flash that roll of money in front of strangers. It may be an unintended invitation to a crack on the noggin—if nothing worse.

You still can't get "something for nothing" in this world. So beware the overfriendly stranger who'd "like to do you a favor." Scores of people are killed every year by smooth operators who prey on vacationers.

An unlocked car is a sure temptation to thieves, especially when goods are in plain view. Lock your car—but even then don't leave luggage, cameras or other valuables in sight. An empty car isn't as inviting to a thief.

Your policeman will be glad to check your home. All you have to do is let him know when you'll be away. It's a good idea to do just that, in view of statistics showing that burglaries are on the rise throughout the nation.

Won't Disarm On Promises, Dulles Declares

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today that the United States will never disarm "merely because of Soviet promises" to behave.

Dulles said it would be reckless "folly" for this nation to do that.

He said, however, that the United States is "actively seeking, through United Nations procedures, ways whereby armaments can be safely reduced."

Dulles made the statement before the House Foreign Affairs Committee in defense of President Eisenhower's foreign aid budget. He said the aid funds are needed to bolster U. S. Allies around the world against the threat of Communist aggression.

The task of world disarmament, Dulles said, "is immensely complicated by the fact that it is not safe for us to alter and weaken the military dispositions which protect us merely because of Soviet promises. There must be dependable supervision and control of all promises and procedures to assure that we may not be victimized by promises that are illusory."

Canadians Elect Commons Members

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP) — An estimated six million Canadians go to the polls today to vote in a national general election to choose a government for the next four years.

Voting will be for members of the House of Commons which will then pick a government from the majority party to rule until 1961.

The Liberal government of 75-year-old Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent is favored to retain power. The Conservative Party standard bearer is John Diefenbaker, 61, of Prince Albert, Sask.

Capone Cronie May Be Deported to Italy

CHICAGO (AP) — Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, reputed heir to the late Al Capone's crime syndicate, today faced deportation to his native Italy.

Federal District Judge Walter J. LaBuy late Saturday revoked the U. S. citizenship of Ricca on grounds he gave false information in his application for naturalization.

Back Home

ROCKLAND, Me. (AP) — John Holmes was driving along when he smelled smoke and discovered that the rear seat of his auto had been ignited by a discarded cigarette. He headed for the fire house where the blaze was extinguished. Holmes was once a fireman.

NEWSPAPERS STILL TOPS—Your daily newspaper is still the favorite with advertisers. Of nearly 10 billion advertising dollars spent in all major media in 1956, newspapers got 3,305 million, which is 33.1 per cent. All media gained in 1956, with an increase of 797.6 million dollars over 1955. The "miscellaneous" classification includes such media as farm publications, outdoor advertising, business journals and weekly newspapers. Data from The Conference Board.

By United Press

SATURDAY
NEW YORK — Eddie Arcaro booted Traffic Judge, the third choice, to victory in the 62,700 Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont Park.

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y. — Bob Backus, a former Tufts athlete, once again shattered the world record for the 56-pound weight throw with a heave of 45 feet, 2 inches.

CHANTILLY, France (AP) — Henri de LaMaze, playing on his home course, defeated Col. Ken Smith of Kansas City to win the French International Amateur golf championship.

MANCHESTER, Eng. — Althea Gibson and Lew Hoad rolled to singles' victories in the British Northern Lawn tennis championships.

SUNDAY

AKRON, Ohio — Arnold Palmer sank a 25-foot chip shot on the sixth extra hole to defeat Doug Ford, after they had tied with 272 in the regulation 72 holes of the Rubber City Open golf tourney.

NEW YORK — Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson announced that he had jumped from the International Boxing Club to fight for independent promoter Emil Lence.

WEST ALLIS, Wis. — Grabbing a permanent lead at the half-way mark, Roger Ward averaged 97.7 miles-per-hour to win the 100-mile National Big Car Rex Mays classic.

VFW Splits Pair Over Week-End

The Harrisburg VFW baseball team won its eighth game of the season Saturday night, 8-7, in a 12-inning game with the Evansville CIO team, but lost to the McLeansboro Pirates 3-0 Sunday afternoon on VFW field. This was the 2nd loss of the season for Harrisburg.

Evansville brought a good hustling ball club to town. In 5 innings the locals had built up a 7-1 lead, but the CIO team kept pecking at Tonazzi, VFW pitcher, and coupled with his wildness tied the game up in the 7th. At this point Don Stout relieved and shut out the visitors the rest of the route. Chambers, a little left-hander, kept the locals well in check until the 12th when Frank Logsdon pounded out a long double and Jim Hal walked. Feddeler walked and the 4th ball was wild and Logsdon scored on a bit of wild base running.

Stout, Griffiths and Dallas got two hits each in this game, and Guley, Odle, Logsdon and Feddeler got the other hits.

Evansville was a running ball club but after a couple of attempts at stealing decided against it as Dick Romonosky, VFW catcher, cut them down.

Kreher, McLeansboro pitcher, tossed a 4-hitter at the locals Sunday. This was a good pitching duel between McNew of Harrisburg and Kreher of McLeansboro. Both pitchers pitched shutout ball for the first seven innings. The Pirates got 7 hits off McNew with Stovers' double being the longest hit of the game. Odle, Griffiths,

HOLLYWOOD TODAY!

MOVIES - TV - RADIO
by Erskine Johnson

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — On stage, Offstage and Upstage: Even movie stars are having "old movie hangers" these days.

Gloria Grahame, 1952 Oscar winner, has been sitting up until 2 and 3 a.m. watching her old films on TV and "The next morning," she laughed, "someone always seems to look at my bleary eyes and say, 'Wow! What town did you paint red?' But it's easy explaining an old movie hanger from the late, late show. Half the people I know have 'em."

Gloria is confused, after living in Europe for two years, about Hollywood buzzing that she's become a problem girl. "I have no beef with Hollywood," she told me. "I've lived and worked here too long. People tell me a lot of wild things were printed about me during my absence. I won't comment on them because I didn't see them—and I'm glad I didn't see them. I'm back and I want to work—that's all that matters now."

The sultry star, who will soon divorce writer Cy Howard, just completed a movie, "Ride Out for Revenge." She says there will be no custody battle over their six-month-old daughter, Paulette, but she isn't talking about her hectic domestic life with Howard except to say:

"We're getting a divorce—that's the answer."

ESTHER WILLIAMS says her next film, to be made in Italy, has a "Three Coins in the Fountain" flavor—"only it's three men in my apartment." Marilyn Monroe switched press agents for her personal publicity. News headline: "U. S. Owns Almost Half of California." Yeah, and Bing Crosby owns the other half.

Kathy Grant's "strip tease" in "The Mad Ball" didn't make the censors mad. She sheds an Army nurse uniform revealing a party dress underneath.

Aside to Jeff Donnell: There's a new book out titled, "Dough, Ray and Me" that has nothing to do with your divorce from Aldo Ray. Barry Gordon, the eight-year-old singer appearing at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas with Ken Murray, was asked when he would be nine. "When Mr. Murray tells me to," he said.

SAMMY DAVIS JR. introduced Frank Sinatra in his audience at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas with: "Ladies and gentlemen, our good-will ambassador to Australia. It's early in the year. He still has time to lose a few more countries." Sinatra laughed the loudest. How times change note: Eva Bartok's headlines temporarily shelved a telefilm in which she's starred. Remember when Hollywood once cashed in on headlines by rushing into release films featuring headline-makers?

Reason Carroll Baker, and not Marilyn Monroe, will costar as Grushenka with Yul Brynner in "The Brothers Karamazov" is that Miss Wiggle Hips wanted 50 per cent of the profits, plus ownership of the film in 10 years.

LANA TURNER'S Brazilian boy Logsdon and Dallas got the local hits, the lowest production of any game this year.

Next Saturday the VFW will travel to Menard to play the prison team and then Sunday will travel to Albion for an Oil Belt League game.

friend, Luis Santos Jacinto, is flying to Hollywood to see the star. . . . Tyrone Power's new girl friend, Mai Zetterling, arrived in Mexico City where Ty's working in "The Sun Also Rises." . . . Edmund Purdom, just married to Alicia Darr, sent a $500 check to ex-wife Tita and their two children.

Jerry Lewis bought out Dean Martin's interest in their York Productions. . . . Instead of buried treasure, Sophia Loren and Alan Ladd should have spent more time looking for a plot in "Boy on a Dolphin." But Sophia's first Hollywood flicker pegs her as Girl on a Shooting Star. She's the screen's Wow Girl of '57.

The Cameron Mitchells reconciled but Mrs. M. still hasn't notified her attorney to dismiss the divorce suit.

Musial Can Equal Suhr Record Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP) — Stan (The Man) Musial can equal the National League's "iron man" record Tuesday night when the Cardinals meet the Phillies in Philadelphia.

By playing in both Sunday's games against the Giants, Musial ran his streak of consecutive games to 821, only one short of the league record of 822 games held by Gus Suhr, former Pittsburgh first baseman.

VANISHING SKILL — Seldom seen these days in the United States, stilt-walkers still ply their trade in other countries. Some 24 feet tall (on stilts), "Noe-Noe," an Englishman, is shown stumping along in Oslo, Norway. Purpose: to advertise a circus.

BENTON, Ill. (AP)—Dick Correll, a 23-year-old University of Illinois senior from Robinson, sank a seven-foot putt on the final hole to win the 36th annual Southern Illinois Amateur golf championship here Sunday.

Correll fired a 214 in the 54-hole medal play for first place in the championship bracket. Finishing close behind him were two former champions, Jim (Dutch) Mitchell, West Frankfort, with a 215 and Pursie Pipes, Mount Vernon, with 216.

Onorio Gheridini, Centralia, the defending champion, withdrew last Friday after his qualifying 78 put him far behind in the field. There were 135 entrants.

The Rare Adventure by BERNARD FERGUSON

Copyright 1954 by Bernard Edward Fergusson. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

XXXVI

Four weeks later, at 7 o'clock on a sharp and frosty November morning, Thom, the hired man, met Allan and Mollie with their car at the Stranraer station.

The Consul-General in Tunis had told them frankly that he would be spared much embarrassment if they were to leave the country together; and they had come back to Scotland by easy stages, staying with friends at Malta and Naples on the way.

As they drove north along the shore of Loch Ryan and up the steep road through Glenapp, where the trees were stiff and white with frost, Thom regaled them with the local news. The electricians had finished their work in the House of Lurg, the painters had covered up their ravages; whereas at Balmorie, it seemed, chaos still reigned. The first woodcock had come in, and were clamoring to be shot. "And there's a terrible mail wait on ye at the house," added Thom.

It was a quarter to eight when they arrived and they went straight into the drawing room, where hot coffee was waiting for them. And although a log fire was burning brightly, Mollie could not resist switching on one of the new electric heaters in order to celebrate the long delayed arrival of the grid. The old flickering engine which had powered them had now been supplanted. It had never been in good enough health to support anything more than the lighting system.

Next she went into the dining room to switch on the new lights. As she did so she began wondering what new arrangement would be necessary to bring the picture of the Kaid out of his exile upstairs into a place of honor. It was tempting to displace the smug member of Parliament so as to enable the Kaid to sneer across the room in perpetuity at his nephew.

Soon she heard Allan calling from the drawing room to join him. He had already attacked his mail, and was standing in front of the fire with a letter in his hand.

"From the Consul-General," he said. "It looks like Seknou's going to be all right." And as Mollie read the letter, he looked over her shoulder and read it again himself.

I hope that Mrs. Lurg and yourself will have forgiven me for busting you away from Tunis. I can only repeat what I said at the time. Sometimes diplomatic pressure is more than one can resist, and you seem to have succeeded, during your short stay in Seknou, in compressing a strong spring. I am very much in your debt for falling in so readily with my request to leave, and I hope you may both be able to come back one day while I am still serving here.

You will be interested in two items of news which I have. M. Loisy, to whom you took such a dislike, has returned rather suddenly to France. It would seem that you are not alone in your distaste for him, as his departure has generally been welcomed out here.

The second bit of news is that your friend Col. de la Meziere has been appointed to the new post of Resident in Seknou. His appointment has caused a good deal of surprise, for he is a fairly senior official. From what you told me yourself, from what one knows about de la Meziere, and from what gossip I hear, the fact seems to be that de la Meziere has been appointed there at his own request, in order to see what sort of a fist the Seknougais will be able to make at paddling their own canoe.

Two parcels were handed in here

a couple of days ago, addressed to you. I was out at the time, and did not see the man who delivered them; but my clerk tells me that he was insistent that they should reach your own hand by the surest possible means. It seemed to me that to avoid Customs and other difficulties the Consular Bag was the best method; but you will understand that I felt obliged to open them before sending them on, to reassure myself that I was not entrusting to Her Majesty's channels a postal bomb, or something of the sort. I was naturally very much struck, when I saw their contents and remembered the details of your story.

There were a dozen parcels among the post, but the two which had come through the Foreign Office were easy to identify. They were both sewn up in sackings; one was long and cylindrical, the other looked as though it might contain a box. Allan fished in his waistcoat pocket for his father's little silver penknife, which had been of such service to him at Clusium, in order to cut the thick string with which they were sewn; and as he picked up the longer parcel he happened to knock the neat pile of letters so that they fanned out across the table. Among them was a colored postcard from Seknou:

We hope that you have had a good journey, and are safely back at Larg. All is well here, and your friends are happy. May we come and see you in the spring at the home of our family?

Jules
Georges

"Bless them!" said Mollie. Wrapper by wrapper and with great care they unpacked the first parcel; and Allan could not help exclaiming when he recognized the old map which he had last seen hanging in the ante-room next to where the Kaid had lain at Clusium. Unskillful and inaccurate it might be; the faded brown characters were the work of one with little craft of the pen; but there was no mistaking the homesickness and the loving care with which it had been drawn.

The second parcel, as they had expected, proved to be a box; and within the box, packed in old French newspapers, lay an old leather bag some six inches deep, tied at the neck and heavy. Allan weighed it in his hand for a moment, trying to guess at what it might be. Then he undid the little thing that bound it, and shook out into a cushioned armchair what lay within. It was the brooch from the shoulder of the Kaid.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Thrills satisfy some people because they are emotionally starved. It is strange that the variety of thrills cover such a wide variety of experiences. Speed in ground conveyances satisfies some folk. Fire or great destruction thrills others because of the danger involved in the situation.

Newspaper stories, television programs, movie magazine articles, ambulance sirens, swaying crowds and scores of other unrelated things give different people vicarious thrills. Most of these

Gill Montgomery Receives Silver Beaver Award for Scout Service

At the annual meeting of the Egyptian Council held last Thursday evening two area Scouters were honored with Silver Beaver awards for "Distinguished Service to Boyhood." The award is conferred by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, for outstanding leadership of highest value to Scouting. Those so honored were Louis LaBash, Zeigler, Scoutmaster of Troop 49, and Gill Montgomery, Eldorado, vice president of the Egyptian Council.

Mr. LaBash, who has been a Scout leader for nine years, is past president of the Zeigler Rotary club. He was a member of the committee which helped build and furnish the city park several years ago. LaBash, a naturalized citizen, is an outstanding example of the true spirit of America. For his exceptional service to the youth of Zeigler he was presented the Rotary award for 1956.

Mr. Montgomery has been active in Scouting since 1944. He is considered one of the most outstanding civic leaders in Eldorado. He is past president of the Eldorado Lions club, an active member of the Eldorado Development committee, which earned a Freedom Foundation award for its "Operation Bootstrap" program.

Montgomery is director of the Eldorado Manufacturing corporation, vice-president of the Minerva Oil Co., active in the work of the Baptist church, and is the corner stone of Scouting in Eldorado. He has given leadership in virtually every Scouting capacity, serving in unit, community, district and council capacities.

Elected as officers of the Egyptian Council for the coming year are Ralph Bedwell, Carbondale, president; and vice presidents, Wally Holz, Carmi; William Budisch, Carbondale; Col. A. R. MacMillan, Carbondale; Ward Padgett, Zeigler; Gordon Parrish, Carbondale; and Leon Zwick, Herrin. Ernest Sorgen, Carbondale, is treasurer, Orlen Wallace, Carbondale, commissioner, and L. V. ## Kills 5 in Family, Commits Suicide; Rambling Note Left

TORONTO (UP)—A 36-year-old Scottish immigrant killed five members of his family Sunday and then committed suicide by driving his car into a concrete abutment.

John Sinclair, an electrician who has been in Canada for nine years, battered to death his 33-year-old wife Florence, his son, Ian, 7, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sinclair, of Saltcoats, Ayrshire, Scotland, who were on a two-month holiday, and strangled his 2½-year-old daughter Joy in her crib.

Sinclair then changed his blood-spattered clothes, and left a note on the bedroom table and another on the front door reading, "Whoever is first, don't come, please call the police." He then drove to his death.

Sinclair left a farewell note written on the backs of five envelopes which were carefully laid in the correct order to be read. Police did not release its contents, but Whitworth described it as "rambling, not something you or I would write, but enough to tell us he killed them."

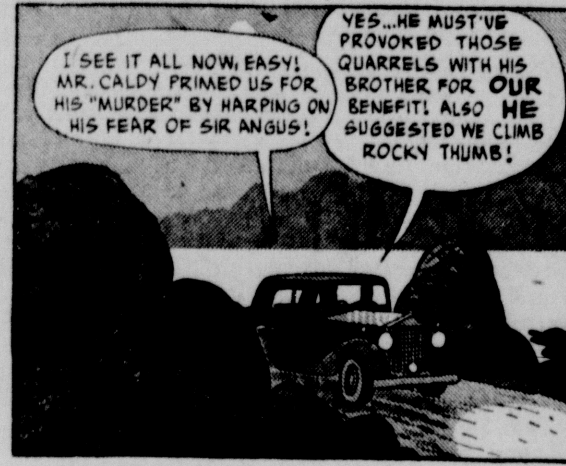

emotional experiences are based on imagined danger.

How much more constructive our thrills would be if they grew out of the emotions based on real love, sympathy, compassion, humility and religious endeavor.
